The app is just over 1MB in size and is notably faster than similar competitor apps such as the Windows 7 USB utility, Universal USB Installer, and UNetbootin. This can be immensely useful while youre on the go or just need access to an OS for a temporary, isolated reason. The app can even be used to flash firmware to BIOS or other destinations by just using DOS. Even though Rufus is a tiny utility in comparison to other USB creation tools that can be rather bulky in size, it contends easily with the competition and creates bootable USB drives in record time!It can work in both prepaid and post paid modes. It is OS independant as it runs on java and PHP.It can run on all O.Ss. This eases things, since cafe operators are not limited to Windows Or Linux software.
